

JEWISH BOOK BINGO Summer Reading

Jewish Character	Israel Setting	Jewish Author	Jew of Color	Tikkun Olam
Bible Story	Graphic Novel or comics	Told in Verse	Sports	Biography about a Jewish Person
Historical Fiction	Holocaust	LBGTQA*	Immigration or Refugees	Jewish Life Cycle Event such as Bar/Bat Mitzvah, wedding, birth, etc
Picture Book	Poetry	Funny or Silly	Recommended by a Friend	Jewish Food
Recommended by a Librarian or Teacher	Re-Read a Book	Audio Book	Yiddish or Jewish Folktale	Torah or Talmud teaching

Rules

- * Read from now until Rosh Hashanah.
- * Each box can be interpreted broadly but the book must have that topic as a significant part of the plot, author, character, setting, or format.
- * Each book you read can be counted only once.
- * For all ages. Books can be read aloud to younger children. Adapt categories, if needed, to accommodate different ages.
- * After you complete a line, scan and send to (or bring in person to the office) temple@templebetham.org

Why?

- * So you don't forget who you are.
- * So you can explore the world of Jewish books and Judaism.
- * So you can see that not all Jewish books are about the Holocaust though some very good ones are!
- * So you can keep stimulating your mind during the summer heat.
- * So you don't lose all that knowledge you've been accumulating all these years.

What You Get

- * Finish a line and get your name announced in Temple email
- * Whenever you finish a line, scan and send to temple@templebetham.org (or bring in person to the office)
- * Do the whole thing and win a prize
- * The pleasure of reading