

To: Temple Beth Am Board

From: Nominations Committee

Re: 2023-2024 Board Slate

The nominations committee was tasked with filling three vacancies on the board for next year to replace outgoing directors Carole Aaron and Betsy Maurer, as well as to fill the spot previously vacated by Corinne Fligner.

We bring you the following nominations (in no particular order):

- 1) Puddin (Carolyn) Cox
- 2) Jeremiah Isgur
- 3) Danielle Ellingston

A little bit about each of them and what gifts they will bring to the board:

Puddin is a long-time Beth Am member who has volunteered in many capacities. She has worked on the Gala committee including as chair, taught religious school for 12 years and has won a Lowen award.

Jeremiah has served one board term previously from 2015-2017 and is really excited to come back to the board after his third child's Bar Mitzvah in June. He's also been involved in many things at Beth Am and may have served you a drink at Purim.

Danielle is a newer Beth Am member who brings her professional expertise while serving on the Finance Committee. She is also really excited to join our board and get involved at a strategic level.